Dear Team:

I am writing to wish you the very best, as you compete in the Para-Cycling World Cup on Canada Day.

I cannot think of a more auspicious time for you to represent Canada abroad. As we celebrate Canada 150, please know that Canadians across the country will also be rooting for you. This competition marks the culmination of countless hours of training and hard work, and I am certain that you will do Canada proud.

To the entire Canadian National Para-Cycling Team – please accept my best wishes and most sincere gratitude for representing our country in Emmen, Netherlands.

Sincerely,

Canadian National Para-Cycling Team
